Return Mail Processing Center P.O. Box 6336 Portland, OR 97228-6336

We are writing with important information regarding a recent security incident. The privacy and security of the personal information we maintain is of the utmost importance to McKinney & Company, CPA. As such, we wanted to provide you with information about the incident, explain the services we are making available to you, and let you know that we continue to take significant measures to protect your information.

What Happened?

We recently received notice from our tax software company that some of our clients' 2019 federal tax returns had been fraudulently filed. If you are one of those clients, we have already contacted you (or the primary filer) directly by phone.

What We Are Doing.

Upon learning of the issue, we immediately secured our tax software and commenced a prompt and thorough investigation. As part of our investigation, we have worked very closely with external cybersecurity professionals to analyze our internal systems for any unusual or unauthorized activity and to determine if any information was at risk. We also immediately notified the Internal Revenue Service of the issue and continue to work with them.

What Information Was Involved?

On May 5, 2020, the forensic investigation concluded that an unauthorized third party accessed our system in April 2020, and may have acquired certain individual client information, including your full name and Social Security number. To the extent you provided your bank account information (routing and checking account numbers) to us, that information may have been accessed as well.

The compromised information included the personal information of primary individual filers, spouses and dependents. Each person on the tax return will be notified separately of this incident.

What You Can Do.

To protect you from potential misuse of your information, we are offering a one-year membership in Experian IdentityWorks<sup>SM</sup> Credit 3B. This product helps detect possible misuse of your personal information and provides you with identity protection services focused on immediate identification and resolution of identity theft. IdentityWorks Credit 3B is completely free to you and enrolling in this program will not hurt your credit score. For more information on identity theft prevention and IdentityWorks Credit 3B, including instructions on how to activate your one-year membership, please see the additional information provided in this letter.

This letter also provides other precautionary measures you can take to protect your personal information, including placing a fraud alert and/or security freeze on your credit files, and/or obtaining a free credit report. Additionally, you should always remain vigilant in reviewing your account statements for fraudulent or irregular activity on a regular basis.

To the extent that your tax return was fraudulently filed, we have been working with you to file a paper return along with a Form 14039 (Identity Theft Affidavit) with the IRS. If you have not received a phone call from us notifying you that a fraudulent return was filed with your information, then your return was not affected and will be e-filed by our firm when it is complete.

To the extent that you provided your bank account information to us, you may contact your financial institution to inquire about steps to take to protect your account, including whether you should close your account or obtain a new account number.

For More Information.

Please accept our apology that this incident occurred. We are committed to maintaining the privacy of our clients' information and have taken many precautions to help safeguard it. We continually evaluate and modify our practices to enhance the security and privacy of our clients' information, and have taken steps to prevent further unauthorized access to client records.

3. Consider Placing a Security Freeze on Your Credit File.

If you are very concerned about becoming a victim of fraud or identity theft, you may request a "Security Freeze" be placed on your credit file, at no charge. A security freeze prohibits, with certain specific exceptions, the consumer reporting agencies from releasing your credit report or any information from it without your express authorization. You may place a security freeze on your credit report by contacting all three nationwide credit reporting companies at the numbers below and following the stated directions or by sending a request in writing, by mail, to all three credit reporting companies:

Equifax Security Freeze P.O. Box 105788 Atlanta, GA 30348 https://www.freeze.equifax.com 1-800-349-9960 Experian Security Freeze P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013 http://experian.com/freeze 1-888-397-3742 TransUnion Security Freeze
P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19016
http://www.transunion.com/securityfreeze
1-888-909-8872

In order to place the security freeze, you'll need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information. After receiving your freeze request, each credit reporting company will send you a confirmation letter containing a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

If your personal information has been used to file a false tax return, to open an account or to attempt to open an account in your name or to commit fraud or other crimes against you, you may file a police report in the city in which you currently reside.

If you do place a security freeze prior to enrolling in the credit monitoring service as described above, you will need to remove the freeze in order to sign up for the credit monitoring service. After you sign up for the credit monitoring service, you may refreeze your credit file.

4. Obtaining a Free Credit Report.

Under federal law, you are entitled to one free credit report every 12 months from each of the above three major nationwide credit reporting companies. Call 1-877-322-8228 or request your free credit reports online at www.annualcreditreport.com. Once you receive your credit reports, review them for discrepancies. Identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. Verify all information is correct. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting company.

5. Additional Helpful Resources.

Even if you do not find any suspicious activity on your initial credit reports, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) recommends that you check your credit reports periodically. Checking your credit report periodically can help you spot problems and address them quickly.

If you find suspicious activity on your credit reports or have reason to believe your information is being misused, call your local law enforcement agency and file a police report. Be sure to obtain a copy of the police report, as many creditors will want the information it contains to absolve you of the fraudulent debts. You may also file a complaint with the FTC by contacting them on the web at www.ftc.gov/idtheft, by phone at 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338), or by mail at Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580. Your complaint will be added to the FTC's Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse, where it will be accessible to law enforcement for their investigations. In addition, you may obtain information from the FTC about fraud alerts and security freezes.
